Reservations: Reservations are required to be made online by each participating adult guest. By completing a Reservation, said Guest agrees to be bound by and accepts the Terms and Conditions stated herein, and as may be amended from time to time. Any modifications and amendments shall have the same force and effect as those contained herein. Also, said guest agrees to be bound by and accepts Royal Caribbean's Cruise Ticket Contract found on the bottom of royalcaribbean.com. In the event of a conflict between Atlas Travel Center's Terms & Conditions and Royal Caribbean's Cruise Ticket contract, Atlas Travel Centers Terms & Conditions will supersede Royal Caribbean's Cruise Ticket contract. For information and questions, you can call us at 866-475-7023 or email us at groups@atlastravelweb.com.

Identification: Guests must make reservations in the full name listed on their government document/passport they will use for travel. If you need to make any changes to a name after travel documents have been issued, traveler will be responsible for all names change fees, if applicable.

Refunds: All payments to Atlas Travel Center, Inc. are non-refundable and non-transferable. This is because Atlas Travel Center has contractual agreements with hotels, airlines, the yacht, safari camp and other vendors that will not allow us to obtain any refunds. This way we can keep our package prices competitive and allow you to make payments on your vacation rather than one bulk sum. If you purchase travel insurance and are cancelling for a covered reason, you may receive a refund of the penalized amount from the insurance company provided you give them the required supporting documents corresponding to the nature of your cancellation.

Passports and Visas: Passengers are responsible for ensuring that they have the proper travel documents and MUST CHECK with the respective consulate(s) or visa agency to determine whether any visas or passports are required. Passports must be valid for at least 6 months beyond travel dates. Any information provided pertains to US citizens only for example, travel.state.gov is an excellent resource. Non-US citizens must check with the respective consulate of the country(s) to be visited for current entry requirements.

Travel Protection: Optional travel insurance is strongly recommended. Life can be unpredictable. Even the best-planned trips can be impacted by the unexpected. And that is why we recommend that you help protect yourself and your investment by purchasing Travel Protection for your Bali trip. Travel Protection can help with medical coverage for illness or injury, trip cancellation and/or interruption, baggage loss, medical evacuation, and more. At any time before you complete Final Payment, you may choose to purchase Travel Protection. The protection plan premium is non-refundable after a 10-day review period. In addition, you must be medically able to travel at the time the premium is paid. In order to cover any pre-existing conditions, travel insurance must be purchased within 14 days of placing your deposit. For a summary of the plan details on coverages, benefits, limitations, and exclusions, please call for an electronic brochure and complimentary quote.

PRICES: Prices are per person unless otherwise specified. Prices do not include items of a personal nature such as laundry, wines, water, beverages, food other than what is outlined on the detailed itinerary, passport and visa fees, insurance, and foreign port taxes unless specifically indicated in the package inclusions. Prices are correct at time of publication; however, as currency continually fluctuates, therefore cruise package prices and availability will change accordingly. In the case of human or computer error, Atlas Travel Center, Inc. reserves the right to re-invoice for the correct price or service.

PAYMENT & CANCELLATION:

Deposit: A deposit is due at the time of reservation. All deposits are non-refundable and non-transferrable. All reservations (except where specified) will require a deposit, the amount due will be clearly noted, and the payment plan that must be followed. We do not auto-charge. Payments are made to your online profile or by calling our office. The initial deposit is $50 per person for doubles & $100 pp for single occupancy cabins Payments: Payments of $50 pp are due the last Friday of each month from July 2024 through February 2025. Final payment on any remaining balance should be made no later than March 14, 2025.

Late Payment: A late fee of $25 will be added to your account after 3 business days of a missed payment date. If there is any outstanding balance by the Final Payment Due date listed on your invoice, all travel services will be subject to automatic cancellation and cancellation fees will apply. If your travel reservations have been canceled, and you notify us within 14 days that you want to reinstate your reservations (and we are still at least 60 days or more from the travel date), a service reinstatement fee of $250 will be added to your invoice and must be paid in advance to apply for reconfirmation of services. If requested services cannot be confirmed, payment will be refunded. If services are confirmed, final payment and any added fees, is due within 24 hours, and all applicable cancellation penalties will apply.

Form of Payment: All payments due are in US Dollars. We accept payment in the form of major credit cards or debit cards. Third-party credit cards are not accepted. Check payments are acceptable only if they are received at least 5 days prior to the payment due date. There is a $35 fee for returned checks including payments made electronically.

Cancellation: Once a partial or full payment has been made, cancellations will only be accepted in writing. Cancellation terms & penalties will apply. Since special events included are being arranged over a year in advance, money is non-refundable as paid and non-transferable to another trip or another traveler.

Name Changes: Often used as a cancellation alternative, guests can change the names on their reservation contingent that at least one original name remains from the reservation's inception. The name change fee of $75 per person per change applies prior to final payment. After final payment has been made, if allowed by the cruise line and it's at least 14 days prior to departure, the name change fee is $150 per person per change. If all parties in one reservation cannot attend then it's considered a full cancellation, name changes do not apply.

Right to Modify: Royal Caribbean & Atlas Travel Center may modify itineraries and schedules, change vessels, crew, entertainers and schedules, modify replace or cancel amenities, inclusions, ports of call, limit access to onsite venues, deny attendance, and/or delay or change event dates, times even cancel altogether without any further obligation to Guest, and any such change or modification does not warrant a refund or reimbursement of any kind.

FORCE MAJEURE There may be times when either party (Royal Caribbean & Atlas Travel Center) is unable to perform, or complete performance, under the travel contract for reasons out of each other's control. These are called force majeure events and, if they occur, make performing under the contract inadvisable, commercially impracticable, illegal, or impossible. Events that may trigger this provision include but are not limited to, acts of God, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolts, military action, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind, or the threat thereof, pandemics, epidemics, illnesses or health conditions prevalent in the area of travel, earthquakes, hurricanes, lightning, and explosions, unexpected legislation, or any other event outside the reasonable control of either party. In the event that a force majeure event occurs, the parties will look to and follow the cancellation policies of Royal Caribbean and these terms & conditions. Any changes to those policies are at the sole discretion of the supplier (if applicable) and Travel Agency. Passengers will be informed of their options if a force majeure event occurs.

TRAVELERS NEEDING SPECIAL ASSISTANCE:

In order to fully enjoy your cruise, we recommend that you select a trip that is suitable to your physical capabilities. Cruise participants needing any form of assistance, including travelers with physical disabilities, sight, hearing or mobility impairments, must notify us before booking a cruise. The cruise company will review the cruise requirements with you to determine the level of assistance you may need and to ensure that the trip you have selected is suitable for you. Please be aware that the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is only applicable within the United States and facilities for disabled individuals are limited outside of US borders. Any participant requiring assistance must be accompanied by a companion who is capable of and fully responsible for providing the assistance. Royal Caribbean, cruise managers, guides, drivers or other cruise, hotel, transfers, or ship personnel are not able to provide individual services such as assisting with walking, pushing a wheelchair or helping with getting off and on motor coaches, cruise ships and other vehicles. In order to participate in a cruise vacation safely, passengers must be able to understand and follow instructions always given by the Cruise Director, both for the successful operation of the cruise and as well as for their own personal safety and the safety of other participants. Cruise company reserves the right to reject participation or remove any individual from the ship in the event that notification was not provided and/or when, in our sole judgment, continued participation would significantly hinder the services to be provided to all guests. Expenses, including cancellation fees and/or costs for alternate travel plans or to return home, will be the responsibility of the passenger. All unused services are non-refundable. Some of the land tours are fast paced, often requiring lengthy walks over uneven terrain. In the interests of group harmony, clients should be able to maintain the tour's pace. Clients with special needs may be better served independently. We can suggest options based upon specific requirements.

Wheelchairs & Walkers:

International Travel: Hotels, transportation providers, sea and river cruises outside of the United States are not required to comply with ADA requirements and therefore may not have ramps, wide entryways or elevators/lifts to accommodate disabled passengers or devices such as wheelchairs, walkers and motorized scooters. Due to physical constraints and space limitations, wheelchairs, walkers and motorized scooters may not be taken aboard motor coaches, river cruises or other forms of transportation.

Service Animals: Service animals may be accommodated on most cruises and verification should be made prior to supplying your initial deposit by contacting us at 866-475-7023 or email us at groups@atlastravelweb.com.

Airline Booking: Atlas offers a choice of airlines and airfares for your convenience but is not responsible for the services and policies imposed by the airline selected. Airline schedules and flights are subject to change without notice. Airfare purchased via Atlas is subject to each airline's terms and conditions. Airfare rules will apply to cruises cancelled for any reason. Atlas is not required to refund airfare until refunded by the airline. Royal Caribbean and/or Atlas Travel is not responsible for penalties incurred for tickets, international or domestic, not issued by Atlas Travel due to schedule and/or flight changes. Airline reservations completed online are subject to review and, should Royal Caribbean deem it necessary, may be rebooked to match minimum connecting time requirements and/or cruise package itineraries, in which case you will be notified immediately.

Airline Contact Information: Pursuant to TSA Secure Flight requirements, passengers are responsible to provide us with their full name as it appears on their passport (or other government- issued I.D. when traveling), date of birth, gender, address, phone number, email and redress or known traveler number (if available) for all passengers. Passengers must ensure that names are correctly listed on their invoice. Royal Caribbean & Atlas Travel Center, Inc will not be responsible for passengers who do not receive an invoice or documents or are denied boarding due to inaccurate information.

Airline Name Changes: Any name change including minor spelling corrections may require airline reservations to be canceled and rebooked. Reservations are subject to current availability and pricing at the time of rebooking. Once airline tickets are issued, subsequent name corrections will be subject to an airline rebooking fee which may be as much as the full value of the airline ticket plus a $50 revision fee per change prior to tickets. Name changes by more than 1 letter after ticketing could result in having to purchase a new airline ticket. Royal Caribbean & Atlas Travel Center, Inc will not be held responsible for the denial of services by a carrier due to any name discrepancy. Name changes must be advised in writing at groups@atlastravelweb.com.

Airline Taxes & Surcharges: If you purchased airfare, airline taxes and surcharges are included. Before full payment, there is a potential price increase(s) due to increases in government-levied taxes, fees and/or increased surcharges. To avoid potential increases, you may accelerate your final payment so that your tickets may be issued. Once issued, airline tickets are no longer subject to potential increases but are fully non-refundable. Certain overseas domestic flights are subject to air taxes which can only be paid locally; in these cases, the specific flights and amounts of those taxes are indicated in our package presentation and pre-departure documentation.

Airline Tickets: Once airfare is purchased, either at time of booking for Instant Purchase Airfare or at time of full payment for airline tickets will be issued. Tickets, once issued, are subject to prevailing airline assessed change or cancellation fees. Please note that some airlines do not accept all major credit cards for payment of Published Instant Purchase Airfare.

Airline Seat Assignments: As a courtesy service, airline seat assignments are requested on your behalf and, when available, are displayed in order of Passenger #1, #2 and so on. Assignments reflect the best available seats at the time of booking. Some airlines and/or fare types do not allow for pre-seating and require this be done at airport check-in only; in this case, the display shows "N/A". Seats are subject to change by your airline(s) including, for example, when there is a schedule change or equipment change after your initial booking; this may cause seat assignments to be changed or even cancelled. Some airlines offer preferred seating for an additional fee; these seats may only be purchased directly from the airline. You will need your family name and the 6- digit airline "Record Locator" which is displayed with the flight details on your reservation. If you change seat assignments directly with your airline, changes will not be reflected on your invoice or documents. At the time that travel documents are issued, the currently assigned seats will be listed based on the assignments stored in your airline reservation at that time. Should you have questions regarding your assignments, please write to us at groups@atlastravelweb.com.

Airline Frequent Flier Programs: Passengers are responsible for contacting their airline directly regarding mileage eligibility and accrual. Airline frequent flier programs determine whether to award miles in part or total based on their own rules which are updated frequently. Some discounted or promotional airfares as well as some code-share flights are not eligible for mileage accrual. We will be happy to provide your frequent flyer number to the airline, but the addition of frequent flier numbers to airline records does not guarantee mileage eligibility, which is at the sole discretion of each airline. Airline schedule changes may result in flights which were originally eligible for mileage accrual no longer being eligible. We highly recommend passengers to provide their frequent flier account information whenever checking in online and/or at the airport check-in desk. After travel has commenced, it is often not possible to apply for frequent mileage credit. Passengers are also responsible for determining whether previously earned mileage may be applied to flights to secure upgrades.

Airline Schedule Changes: In the event of an airline schedule change, we will make every effort to inform passengers of the schedule change and new flight schedule prior to departure. Atlas is not responsible for schedule changes including, when applicable, changes in routing and/or the number of stops in the itinerary. Atlas is unable to provide compensation for schedule changes, seat assignment modifications, or cancellations implemented by an airline. In the event of any change in flight itinerary made directly between passengers and their airline, it is the passenger's responsibility to advise us of amended flight details in writing at groups@atlastravelweb.com. Atlas Travel Center, Inc cannot be held responsible for land services, including arrival and/or departure transfers, if flights are changed without its knowledge. Travel insurance is strongly recommended.

Airline Baggage: Checked bags are typically limited to a total dimension of 62 inches by adding length + width + height (example: 26"+26"+10" = 62"), and a maximum weight of 50 lbs. (23kg). Smart Bags with a USB charging port, GPS tracking device and other high-tech features are prohibited as checked or carry-on baggage unless the bag is made with removable batteries and the batteries are removed and stored separately. Many airlines apply charges for checked bags including flights which begin and end within the USA. The most inexpensive airfare options, commonly known as Basic Economy airfares, do not include any checked bags nor seat assignments before the day of departure. However, for some airlines, other airfare categories also do not include checked baggage. This will be clearly displayed in our airfare selection and on your invoice. Where available, we highly recommend selecting airfares which include at least 1 piece of checked baggage. Atlas Travel is not responsible for checked bag fees, excess luggage or weight charges levied by an airline. Checked baggage allowances displayed on reservation details and invoices reflect the applicable allowance at the time of booking but are subject to change by your airline(s). If your luggage is lost or damaged by the airline, a baggage claim form MUST be filed with the carrier before leaving the airport.

Hotel Accommodations: All rooms when applicable are standard king rooms with private facilities, unless you have specifically requested and paid for an upgraded room category. Room selection in all cases, unless otherwise reserved, is strictly at the discretion of the hotel's management on a run-of-house basis. Special requests such as bed types, smoking preference and connecting rooms are subject to accommodation. Room size does not dictate the room size. Hotel check-in time is generally not before 4:00 p.m. and check-out time is prior to noon. Please be sure that adequate arrangements for accommodations have been taken into consideration when a late-night flight is being used. If a day room is included in the itinerary, check-out will normally be 6:00 p.m. We reserve the right to make substitutions with hotels of equal standard. There will be no refunds for any difference in the cost of those accommodations.

Meals: As specified in each itinerary, meals are based on the ship's predetermined buffet or set menu. In general, beverages are not included, unless specifically stated. Dietary request and preferences should be provided at the time of booking or submitted in writing at least 72 hours prior to departure at groups@atlastravelweb.com. Although we cannot make any guarantees, every effort will be made to honor special dietary requests. Terminology for dietary requests can vary from country to country. Therefore, we recommend that you make your wishes known to your ship's Maitre D upon getting onboard.

Transfers: Transfers are typically not automatically included for most cruises unless pre-arranged and pre-purchased. At purchase time, you must supply your complete flight itinerary including carrier, flight number, date, departure and arrival time/gateway. Royal Caribbean transfer service operates on the day of embarkation and debarkation only and from certain air cities. Royal Caribbean & Atlas Travel will not be responsible for flight delays, for any reason. In case of a delay, whether due to flight delay, immigration and customs, or time spent reporting baggage damage or loss, it will be your responsibility to make other transfer arrangements such as a taxi. Transfer costs are not refundable, and any additional expenses will be your responsibility. Our transfer drivers, while not employees of Atlas, are reliable and work year-round for our clients. They provide you with a full welcome service, transfer you to the correct location and are prepared to answer your questions during your ride.

Sightseeing & Itinerary: Shore Excursions are operated by motor-vehicle, its size dictated by the number of participants. Royal Caribbean excursions have been designed to accommodate individuals as well as groups. The number of participants may vary during the tour, as Royal Caribbean accommodates travelers arriving on different ships. Times listed in itineraries are approximate and could change. Some itineraries may have early morning start times for sightseeing to complete the touring during daylight hours or avoid afternoon heat in tropical and desert climates. It is your responsibility to arrive on time for all scheduled flights, cruises, and package components. Arriving late may be considered a "no-show", in which case you will not be eligible for refund for the unused service(s). We cannot guarantee the number of passengers who will be on any given excursion. You may find that you are traveling with a sizeable group or only with your own companions. Services, however, will remain constant no matter the number of tour participants. On dates including, but not limited to religious holidays and national celebrations, some monuments and sites may be closed. On these occasions, touring itineraries may be amended to reflect these closures. Occasionally, during holidays and certain periods, and/or due to unforeseen circumstances including weather conditions, there may be last-minute changes, sometimes after arrival, affecting the sequence of the excursion, locations visited and/or hotels. Therefore, we reserve the right to adjust the sequence and/or substitute any hotels with others of similar category. In such cases there will be no cost adjustment. National monuments and tourist sites regularly undergo renovations, which can obscure the monument's view. No tour will be canceled due to renovations; however Royal Caribbean will decide based on the conditions whether to amend an itinerary. Royal Caribbean itineraries may contain suggestions for activities for your leisure time; these suggestions do not constitute an endorsement of any specific service provider and the decision to participate in any such activities should be made independently and with due consideration.

English Language: English is the primary language spoken onboard most cruises although most crew members are bilingual and some can speak 3 or more languages. For maximum enjoyment and understanding, its recommended be able to understand, read and speak English.

Group Harmony: To ensure the desired group synergy, Royal Caribbean & Atlas Travel Center Inc reserves the right to accept, reject or expel any individual who is deemed disruptive or incompatible with the interests of the group, including, but not limited to, (a) if it is reasonably believed that an individual is dangerous to others or to themselves; (b) has engaged in or threatening to engage in behavior that may adversely affect the safety, security, well-being or enjoyment of other individuals; (c) who are intoxicated and/or under the influence of drugs (d) who has failed or refused to follow Royal Caribbean rules and procedures or the instruction of Royal Caribbean employees or representatives. Expenses, including cancellation fees and/or costs for alternate travel plans or to return home, will be the responsibility of the passenger. All unused services are non-refundable. Royal Caribbean shall be entitled to recover from the individual any cost or expenses incurred by Royal Caribbean, or its representative in the removal of the individual.
